Coach's Corner

Parkview by the Numbers Q and A

Dear Friends,

I wanted to let you know how much I appreciate all your generosity over the years. I wanted to give you a few of the latest facts.

Q: Aart, what is our annual budget?

A: The budget is $159,000, but there are small separate accounts kept by PPW, youth, choir, Mariners etc.

Q: Do we underspend or overspend our budget?

A: Over the years we have underspent it, although it varies. Over the time frame of 2012 thru 2017, our income has been about $2,700 per year more than our expenses.

Q: Do we operate on a cash flow basis only or do we have a reserve?

A: We have a reserve account with the Synod of the Pacific left in the amount of $17,000, and whatever we have in our checking account beyond our monthly operating cost is also considered reserve. Right now the two together are about $27,000 after we take out nearly $12,000 for the new sound system, which is designated by Wade and Tom Tambara from donations in honor of their parents. The summer is a low giving time, but we expect to have the reserve back to about $35,000 by the end of the year.

Q: Isn't the reserve kind of low?

A: Correct, the reserve has been as high as $75,000 over the years I have been here, but over the last four years we have spent about $65,000 in repairs to our main buildings and the sidewalks.

Q: Does the lower reserve have anything to do with the residency program?

A: No. The Presbytery gives us up to $17,000 per year for their stipends and will do so through December 2020.

Q: How much do we provide for the residency program and do we pay for the residents' trips?

A: $7,500 per year (mission money that we sent to the Presbyterian Church every year but now are keeping home) as well as the cost of utilities etc. for the Kansha building. From the combined Presbytery/Parkview fund we pay for the cost of registration for the ECC weekend at Zephyr point and for one Manzanar weekend trip per resident only.

Q: What part of the budget goes to pastor salary/benefits and staff salaries combined?

A: A little over two-thirds.

Q: How much money do the fundraisers coordinated by the Fongs bring in a year?

A: $15,000 to $20,000!

Q: How much income do we get from the church rental to the GKI Indonesian fellowship?

A: $7,200 plus special rentals (minus the cost of utilities during their hours of use).

Q: What are our other sources of income?

A: Pledges, special donations, special minor fundraisers.

Parkview Supports Homeless Youth

Thank you for your donations to Parkview Presbyterian Women's 2018 mission project to help homeless youth who receive services from Wind Youth. PPW collected enough kitchen, bedroom, and bathroom items to help furnish four apartments for homeless youth moving into their own place. Church members also donated $600 in gift cards for groceries and other starter items as well as cash to help complete the kits. On Sep 21, 2018, a group of PPW members and our newest resident, Veronica Gould, divided the items into the four kits. Peter Bell from Wind Youth and Monique, a representative of the Wind Youth housing unit, were visibly moved when they picked up the donated items. Monique told us that helping a young person find their own place to live is oftentimes half the battle. She said that youth who move into their own place with nothing else often become discouraged by the lack of household items and the expense of buying these items. These items will make a difference in the daily lives of these youth.

Wind Youth told us that 50 youth are currently in the transitional housing program and that they will be expanding their program to add 30 more youth. Thank you Parkview for your generosity in making this project such a success!

Holiday Donations and Service to the Homeless

Many thanks to the eleven Parkview volunteers who served lunch at Loaves and Fishes in September. Rola and Veronica, our pastoral residents, were among the volunteers who served over 800 lunches. Please join us on the third Tuesday of every month except Thanksgiving week.

The holiday season is approaching, so we will start collecting stocking items for the homeless. Look for the bin in the social hall. Find out what is needed by going to <http://www.sacloaves.org/needs-list>. Toilet paper, toiletries, socks, and underwear are always at the top of the list. We know there are many requests for charity, so we appreciate your kind donations.

Breakfast Buffet 2018

The 10th Annual Breakfast Buffet was another huge success this year! Many thanks go to Chairperson Jack Sakai and his assistants Donna Komure-Toyama and Carol Sakai! Another thank you goes to William Yee, Titus Toyama, and Judy Fukuman for coordinating the breakfast sponsorship. This was the first year we arranged breakfast sponsorships, and we had a great response! We couldn't have served over 700 customers, if it weren't for Eddie's Crew, who arrived at 5am to start the morning off right. Thank you, Eddie and Crew!

And this breakfast couldn't happen without all the Parkview members and their friends and families who came Friday afternoon and evening to prep and set up and, of course, all those who weren't discouraged and returned Saturday morning to WORK at the biggest annual event at Parkview!

We had some hiccups, but we overcame them. Eddie and I would like to thank all those who stayed to the bitter end and helped cleaned up Parkview! Returning Sunday morning, we couldn't even tell that over 700 people had come through the day before.

If you did not get a chance to purchase our newly designed Parkview Breakfast t-shirt, we ordered extras, and there are a few more available for $15 each. Email Yvonne (yjf1102@gmail.com).

Vietnamese Dinners Auctioned Off

During the Breakfast Buffet, Carolyn Van Beek offered up two gourmet Vietnamese dinners for ten for silent auction. Marilyn Champa & Titus Toyama were the lucky bidders for one dinner, while Jane Matsuoka and her niece and nephew Effie & Steve Hanway had the successful bid for the second dinner. The winners are looking forward to having Carolyn in their homes soon. This is the first year Carolyn has offered these dinners, so the lucky winners are looking forward to this new cuisine adventure!

PPC Helps the Arab-American Community

On Sep 22 several PPC members headed to the Arab-American Learning Center at 9 am to participate in the center's Volunteer Workday. We did some exterior painting - under the burning sun - on buildings that were abandoned for nine years. James Harris from the Davis Community Church came with his big truck to take items to the dump. A big shout out to all our wonderful PPC volunteers: Tak, Judy, Terry, Daisy, Christina, Hannah, and Henry, who worked alongside seven members from DCC. I cannot be any prouder of our Presbyterian team!

They report that the highlight of the conference was the keynote speaker, Rev. Jimmie Hawkins, who spoke about the Poor People's Campaign. For more information, go to <https://www.poorpeoplescampaign.org/>.

Kansha Korner

Our residents' column on their recent activities.

Veronica writes:

When I arrived in Sacramento a little over a month ago, I could never have known all the blessings God had in store for me here at Parkview. I am so grateful for the many ways I have already been welcomed to this church family.

From my first week here, I could tell that Parkview is a congregation that knows how to celebrate! We celebrated Chelsea's time in the church with food, song, and dance. It was a wonderful welcome for me as well, and I was amazed by how many people came to the party. Since those first days, I have had the opportunity to learn many more names and faces. I have enjoyed singing with the choir. I want to especially thank those who have welcomed me into their homes for their hospitality.

As I am getting to know you all, I am delighted to discover that Parkview is a community where all are welcome, wherever we find ourselves in the journey of faith. Whether you are a lifelong Christian, a skeptic, yearning for a deeper faith, or seeking where you belong, there is a place here for you, and I am so glad to be here with you.

I know God's Spirit is at work in the eagerness with which this congregation serves our community. At Loaves and Fishes, we served lunch to many in the city who are experiencing homelessness. Through the organization of PPW and the contributions of many of you, we were able to provide resources for apartments for youth in transition from homelessness. We are able to mobilize to do great things together-- the success of our annual Breakfast Buffet proved that!

As I look forward to the coming months, I know I have much to learn, and I am thankful for you all for walking alongside me in my journey. I pray that you will let me walk alongside you in yours.

Coach's Corner, continued from page 1

Q: We rent out our parking spaces behind the church on weekdays and then rent the parking lot across the streets for Sundays, how do they compare?

A: It's very close.

Q: Are there any special expenses projected in the near future?

A: We may have to replace one more AC compressor in the near future that may cost close to $10,000.

Q: Is there a wish list?

A: We would like to create a path on the courtyard lawn for wheelchair accessibility, and we would like to beautify the yard in front of the Kansha. Most urgently we need to replace the Kansha sink, because the residents use it for cooking, and it is old and very small. We also need to add shelving to the church kitchen and some electric capacity for fundraisers.

May God bless our ministry. See you in church! Aart

Volunteer Spotlight: May Lee

Parkview is fueled by its volunteers, many of whom work behind the scenes to keep the church going.

What doesn't May do? You'll find her at church early on Sunday mornings, helping get the sanctuary ready for service. She helps collate the newsletter every month, serves lunches at Loaves and Fishes, and seems to appear on every volunteer sign-up sheet for events during the year. She currently serves on the Communion Elder, Coffee Hour, Greeter, PA Operator, and Usher worship teams. Now, if we could only get her to take piano lessons!
