Office Notes

By Kris Sazaki

I create the Worship Team schedule every month. It's an intricate dance to match volunteers with all the jobs that are performed every Sunday. When I'm sitting in the office with pencil and empty schedule pad, I sometimes forget how integral each team member is for the creation of a beautiful worship service that occurs every single Sunday, rain or shine. Would you like to join one or more of the teams and become part of the service, too? Parkview is always looking for more volunteers. Email officemanager@parkviewpc.org if you are interested in performing any of the duties listed below. Training is available for all positions. Thank you in advance for your willingness to serve.

Children should start now. Enjoy a hosted whole foods, plant-based vegan/oil-free light luncheon. If you are so inclined and want to share a dish, you're welcome to bring a vegan/oil free dish. Parkview's Breakfast Buffet Scores Again!

The 11th annual Breakfast Buffet on Sep 28 was a huge success. Tickets sold by our church members, Eddie and Yvonne, and to sponsors and walk-ins totaled 742! We all pulled together and made this large effort happen, so we can all give ourselves a big pat on the back. Let's give thanks, too, to our gracious donors: Sandy Te of Marie's Donuts, Janet and Bobby Okino, Clyde Uchida, Tom's Printing (Mel Tom, Becky Cheng, Robert Tom), Doreen Hosokawa, Daryl Honda, Kelly's Express Car Wash (Jason Payne), Fong's Printing (Karen Cotton), Mike Oto (Oto's Market), Franks's Quality Meat, Oak Park, Market (John and Stephanie Louie), Chinese Community Church (Steve Chan), and General Produce (Brian Nelson), and of course Eddie's Crew and our generous sponsors. We are grateful to all of you and thank you for your participation. The financial summary is not available yet, but the totals should well exceed last year's income. Please attend our wrap-up meeting on Oct 27 and bring your comments and suggestions.

Kansha Korner

Our residents' column on their recent activities.

Rola writes:

ECC (Ethnic Concerns Consultation) is a yearly gathering that brings together churches to engage in discussions over diversity and cross-cultural awareness. This year it was held Oct 4-6, and the theme was "Cherishing All of God's Creations." The keynote speaker was Rev. Dr. Alonzo Johnson, the Coordinator for the Presbyterian Committee of the Self-Development of People Program (SDOP) in our national office. Rev. Johnson talked to us about inclusion, intentional diversity, missional engagement, preventing and alleviating poverty, and equity in diversity.

Veronica and I led a breakout session in which we shared about our multicultural experience at Parkview. We talked about the social structure of our church, the characteristics of multicultural ministry, and the challenges we face together as a diverse congregation. Thanks to those of you who took the time to answer our questions and to talk about your experience as part of the community at Parkview.

Volunteer Spotlight: Leah Nishizaki

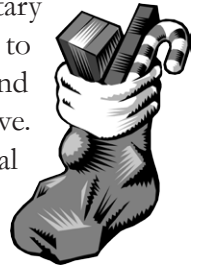

Parkview is fueled by its volunteers, many of whom work behind the scenes to keep the church going.

If you've wondered about the beautiful graphics that were produced for Pastor Aart's retirement luncheon or centerpieces for the Aloha Fest, you can thank Leah and her creative talents. She steps up for all kinds of duties such as summer Sunday School. She's even tinkled the ivories as a sub for our pianists. Thanks, Leah, for filling the needs wherever they may be!

Help Youth Group with Christmas Stockings

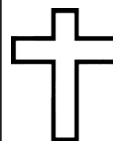

The Youth Group is requesting monetary donations to aid in their efforts to stuff stockings for the Loaves and Fishes Christmas Stocking Drive. These stockings will include essential items such as gloves, toiletries, and various gift cards for the homeless population. The Youth Group will attempt to complete twenty stockings.

If you donate at least $20, you will receive a "buy one, get one free" Jamba Juice gift card. Please give your donations directly to Jay Chew or any Youth Group member. Your donation and support are always appreciated!
