

The Lord's Prayer

All: Our Parent Who art in heaven, hallowed be Your name. Your kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Sending Hymn: "Today We All Are Called to Be Disciples"

Today we are all called to be	Pray justice may come rolling down
Disciples of the Lord,	As in a mighty stream,
To help to set the captives free,	With righteousness in field and town
Make plow-share out of sword,	To cleanse us and redeem.
To feed the hungry, quench their thirst,	For God is longing to restore
Make love and peace our fast,	An earth where conflicts cease,
To serve the poor and homeless first,	A world that was created for
Our ease and comfort last.	A harmony of peace.

People: We are hungry for eternal life.
 Leader: Jesus said, "I am the bread of life."

All: We are here to become what we already are: the body of Christ, food for a hungry world.

TBD

Leader: Tender, loving God, have mercy on us.
People: Like David, we have been greedy, grasping for what is not ours even though we have enough.
 Leader: We have forgotten your promise: that you will fill us with the bread of life.
People: Like the crowd that followed Jesus to Capernaum, yet did not understand what he had given them, we seek bread for our bodies more than we seek the bread of heaven.

People: Tender, loving God, have mercy on us.

Assurance of God's Grace TBD

	And renew a right spirit within me.

Create in me a clean heart, O God,

Cast me not away from your presence and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit

1st Scripture Reading: 2 Samuel 12:1-7a TBD

The Lord sent Nathan to David. When he came to him, he said, "There were two men in a certain town, one rich and the other poor. The rich man had a very large number of sheep and cattle, but the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb he had bought. He raised it, and it grew up with him and his children. It shared his food, drank from his cup, and even slept in his arms. It was like a daughter to him.

"Now a traveler came to the rich man, but the rich man refrained from taking one of his own sheep or cattle to prepare a meal for the traveler who had come to him. Instead, he took the ewe lamb that belonged to the poor man and prepared it for the one who had come to him."

David burned with anger against the man and said to Nathan, "As surely as the Lord lives, the man who did this must die! He must pay for that lamb four times over, because he did such a thing and had no pity." Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man!"

2nd Scripture Reading: John 6:24-27; 34-35 Rev. Dr. Pamela Anderson

Once the crowd realized that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum in search of Jesus.

When they found him on the other side of the lake, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

Jesus answered, "Very truly I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw the signs I performed but because you ate the loaves and had your fill. Do not work for food that spoils, but for food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Humanity will give you. For on him God the Parent has placed the seal of approval."

"Sir," they said, "always give us this bread."

Then Jesus declared, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."
