

Chapel Chimes

727 T Street, Sacramento, CA • November 2023

Dear Friends,

At our April 2023 session meeting, Parkview's elders voted to join the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)'s Matthew 25 movement, along with 1,162 congregations in our denomination who have also embraced the vision. What's the Matthew 25 movement and why did Parkview sign on as a member congregation? The Matthew 25 movement is based on a passage from Matthew's Gospel- Matthew 25:31-46, the final story in Jesus' public teaching ministry. These verses are known as the parable of the sheep and goats. In this parable, Jesus makes clear that what we do matters to God, and how we treat others is important to God. When we welcome others, we welcome Christ; when we bring together people who are divided, we are doing God's reconciling work. We are called to serve Jesus by helping the most vulnerable in society. From affordable housing to equitable educational and employment opportunities to healing from addiction and mental health issues to enacting policy change – there are many ways to live out the principles of the Matthew 25 movement.

The Matthew 25 movement focuses on three key areas: dismantling structural racism, building congregational vitality, and eradicating systemic poverty. In our church's mission and vision statements, Parkview is described as a multicultural care-giving community that seeks "to honor our Japanese-American heritage wrought out of the unique blend of communal and Christian values, immigrant experience, and the suffering of incarceration." Having experienced collective experiences of suffering, racial discrimination and injustice, working for justice and living in solidarity with those who suffer and are treated unjustly is a core value for Parkview. We are a welcoming, inclusive, innovative community, actively seeking to serve God and humankind with love and creativity and humility. Parkview has been a Matthew 25 congregation for many years. Our elders just made it official by signing on with the Presbyterian Church's movement this year. At our session meetings this fall, the elders and I are studying Matthew 25 and discussing what these verses mean to us as individuals, and as a church. I will be preaching on key areas of the Matthew 25 movement during November.

Here's an interesting point to ponder from Matthew 25:31-46: Jesus makes his kingdom accessible to not only the big-time, lavish doers in the world, but to all the small doers in the world, too. Look at the services that are rendered to those in need . . . they are all so basic: providing food and drink, clothing, hospitality, shelter, visiting troubled people. These basic, unflashy services are given Jesus' highest honors. Big miracles aren't happening in this story, little ministries are. Yet it is in these little ministries that the miracle of the big mystery - eternal salvation - occurs. Jesus calls us to perform ordinary acts of compassion to those in need in our daily lives. As we do, we continue Christ's work of proclaiming the good news of God's loving welcome, justice and peace for all.

Thankful to be on the journey with you,
Pastor Sarah

*"For I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
I was a stranger and you welcomed me,
I was naked and you clothed me,
I was sick and you visited me,
was in prison and you came to me."
(Matthew 25:35-36)*

Report from Session

At the October 12 meeting of Session, the following matters were reported, voted upon, and/or discussed:

- Donation for Maui Relief – As part of the Aloha offering drive in August, Parkview members donated $3,240 for Maui relief efforts. After further research, Session voted to donate the following: $1,000 to Maui Strong (similar to the Sacramento Regional Foundation); $1,000 to the Hawaiian Council (provide shelter, food, and financial help to residents); and, $1,240 to the Maui Food Bank;
- Visit from Pastor Igor Bilorus from Ukraine – on October 15, Pastor Bilorus will speak to the congregation about his church in war torn Ukraine. Also, violinist Igor Veligan and his spouse, pianist Mira Veligan, will perform for us. Session authorized a pulpit supply payment of $150 to Pastor Bilorus and Parkview will take up offerings for his church on October 15 and 22;
- Update of Lighting Fixtures in Social Hall – William Yee reported that Parkview received a bid to install new light fixtures in the social hall for $800 to $1,000, from electrician Jun Tang. Parkview will purchase the fixtures. We will ask Lois Van Beers, who has worked on this issue, to contact Hobrecht Lighting to visit Parkview to suggest the appropriate fixtures. The broken fixture in the sanctuary also needs to be repaired as well;
- Security Team Seeks Input – William Yee reported that the City of Sacramento will not approve the installation of a 6-foot fence next to the sidewalk on 8th Street. The City recommends a 4 foot fence instead. Congregational input on fencing, cameras, and lighting will be sought in a meeting on October 15, after service;
- Annual Staff Evaluations – To be completed by the Personnel Committee in October and November;
- Report from Pastor Sarah – Pastor Sarah is looking into hosting a series of holy listening and prayer/discernment meetings beginning in January. All will be invited and more information to follow. Pastor Sarah will also work on an article for Chapel Chimes about how minimum required distributions from IRA and 401(k) plans can be a source of stewardship;

- Upcoming Events – November 12 (Thanksgiving Showtime; sign up by October 31); November 19 (congregation evacuation drill)

- Terri Bowman, Clerk of Session
Steve Hanway, Pattie Hashimoto,
Donna Komure-Toyama

Volunteer Spotlight: YOU!

Parkview is fueled by its volunteers, many working behind the scenes to keep the church going.

You keep the church going! There are too many volunteers to mention in this short space. Look at our call for worship team volunteers below. In addition, many thanks to Julie Chew, our depositor, Carla Hart and Maurine Huang, our office volunteers, our officers, Session members. Thank you all for sharing your talents with Parkview.

2024 Parkview Sunday Worship Teams

Thanks to our dedicated volunteers, Parkview has been able to maintain delightful and thriving Sunday services in 2023. Now it's time to set the 2024 schedule. If you'd like to maintain your current schedule, we thank you very much. However, please let us know by November 19, if you are NOT able to come back in the same capacity or would like to change your schedule for 2024. Contact any Worship Committee member or email sakakibaraharuko@gmail.com. New volunteers can sign up through November 30.

Working together in worship certainly builds our warm sense of community, so it would be great if you know anyone you think we should contact to invite to be part of the worship volunteers. We especially need more help with ushers, PA operators, parking attendants, and parking barrier attendants on Saturdays.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who participated in 2023 and for promptly responding to my emails when substitutes needed to be found. I feel very happy about getting to know you better through my weekly reminder work.

Charitable Giving Through Your IRA

Did you know you can donate to charities through your IRA account?

There are benefits to doing so:

- You can satisfy your required minimum distribution (RMD) in the year you make a qualified charitable distribution (QCD).
- Your QCD is not included in your adjusted gross income.
- This is a tax efficient way to make a charitable gift if you use standard deduction.

There are some requirements:

- You must be 70½ or older at the time the distribution is made.
- The distribution must be an otherwise taxable distribution from an IRA.
- The distribution must be made directly to an organization (such as Parkview) eligible to receive tax deductible contributions.

More information and advice at <https://www.presbyterianfoundation.org/ira-distributions/> or contact our office manager at officemanager@parkviewpc.org.

YES (Youth Enrichment System) Teacher

- Serve 2-3 times per year
- Duties include: monitor and provide children with youth activities
- Current Team: Jana, Julie, Lois, Lynn
- Contact Jana Nakase-Lee (jana\_lab@yahoo.com), if you would like to become a YES teacher.

Altar Flowers

- Serve 1 time per year
- Duties include: provide altar flowers
- Current Team: countless!
- Contact Judy Yee (judyfye@gmail.com), if you would like to donate altar flowers

2024 Stewardship Pledge Cards

Pastor Sarah recently reached out to Parkview: “We have within us the power to change the world. Parkview is strong as we each grow, as we each give, as we each live our lives in God’s love and service. Will you join with others in our church family who are making small and large changes in living and giving that will support the ongoing work of Parkview Church?” Go to <https://parkviewpc.org/2023/11/06/making-small-and-large-changes-in-living-and-giving/> to read her letter in full. You can print out this pledge card, if you would like to make a pledge for 2024. Just return it to the church by December 15. Thank you so much!

Support for Ukraine

On October 15, Parkview held a special service to reiterate its support for the people of Ukraine. Pastor Igor Bilorus from Ukraine spoke during worship. You can view his talk by clicking here. As of this writing, Parkview raised another $2,000 for Ukraine from Pastor Igor’s visit. Read more about Pastor Igor’s visit and view the slideshow at <https://parkviewpc.org/2023/10/19/special-service-raises-funds-for-support-of-ukraine/>.

ECC 2023

With a theme of “This is the Moment,” some 50 people gathered at Zephyr Point for the 51st annual Ethnic Concerns Consultation (ECC). Featured speaker, the Rev. Dominique Dubois Gilliard, pointed out that truth and reconciliation are not synonymous, but emphasized that if we tell the truth, we can begin to understand what it takes to reconcile. People of color, he reminded us, need representation at the decision-making level. He gave several examples of individual, institutional, and systemic racism. For instance, he reminded us that the bail bond system impacts more heavily on impoverished individuals, who are disproportionately people of color, because they are not likely to have the resources to pay bail. Because of such discrepancies, institutional racism can continue, even when institutions do not intend to make distinctions based on race.

A breakout session, led by the Rev. Dr. Robert Azzarito, pastor of Sierra Vista Community Church and Dr. Beatrice Russell, a faculty member at California State University, Sacramento, warned of the dangers inherent in white Christian nationalism, a growing movement that is presently on the rise in U.S. politics. They introduced a recent article by Adam Russell Taylor which outlines several characteristics of Christian nationalism in U.S. politics. These include:

- the candidate stokes fear through an “us-versus-them” rhetoric, demonizing the “other”
- the candidate promotes a revisionist history of the United States as being “a Christian nation”

Group photo of ECC participants

- the candidate talks about the US being “chosen” without acknowledging the way we have continued to fall short of our founding principles
- the candidate demonizes racial justice commitments or dismisses them as being “woke.”

A meaningful Sunday worship service at the outdoor Donaldson Amphitheater was led by the Rev. Sarah Reyes-Gibbs, who, with Chuck Lauren, a member of Trinity Presbyterian Church/Stockton, also served as co-moderator of the event and provided a brief history of the ECC. Founded in 1973, the ECC provides a means by which it can enable spiritual growth and cultural awareness, as it advocates for racial and economic justice issues in the Church and in society.

Volunteers Beautify Parkview

On Monday, November 6, after heavy rains, 16 dedicated Parkview family and friends shopped for supplies and/or showed up to clean up the Japanese garden. Not only did they clear away overgrowth, they discovered beautiful garden elements in the process. Now we can bring in the Japanese garden specialist to trim the trees.

Volunteers also installed eight planters in the street verge in front of the church. Two camellia plants will be planted in the two planters at the loading zone, while plants from the late Jane Matsuoka’s garden were donated to fill the planters. We can use more drought-tolerant plants for the planters, so please check your garden and let us know if you have something to donate. You can view the slideshow at <https://parkviewpc.org/2023/11/06/garden-angels-beautify-parkview/>.

Many thanks to our garden angels: Julie Chew, Phillip Chew, Tak Fukuman, Bill Grissom, Maurine Huang, Jana Nakase-Lee, Dan McGill, Dave McGill, Sarah Nave, Neil Matsuoka, Jonathan Sakakibara, Kris Sasaki, Lois Van Beers, Hach Yasumura, Diane Younglove, Gary Younglove. What a blessing they are!
