

The Shadow of Crucifixion

Mark 15:21-32

“O Sacred Head, Now Wounded” (#221)

O sacred head now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down;
now scornfully surrounded with thorns, thine only crown;
O sacred head, what glory, what bliss till now was thine!
Yet, though despised and gory, I joy to call thee mine.

“Jesus, Remember Me” (#227)

Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.
Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.

The Shadow of Death

Mark 15:33-39

“Were You There” (#228)

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
O! Sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Call to Worship and Opening Prayer

Leader: In this holy week, on this holy night,

People: We come to be present with Jesus in his suffering.

Leader: With the glory of Palm Sunday behind us and the joy of Easter not yet come,

People: We gather with our broken hearts.

Leader: In this world that is at once beautiful and holy and tragic,

People: We seek to be present with all who suffer.

Leader: When sorrow threatens to overwhelm,

People: We long for a quiet and sacred space—

Leader: A space where we can listen and sing and pray,

People: A space to sit with our grief and our questions.

Leader: Let us be that space for each other tonight

All: As we remember the story together.

A Prayer of Reconciliation for Good Friday

Leader: Ever-present God, on this Good Friday night, our whole world is engulfed in shadows as we remember the story of Jesus' death. We confess that we want to push the fast-forward button on this familiar story because it hurts so much. It hurts to think of the betrayal and arrest of Jesus.

It hurts to imagine Jesus abandoned and suffering on the cross with only a faithful few watching him breathe his last breath. It hurts to watch your light overtaken by the shadows of the world.

All: But we must find our place in this crucifixion story and feel the pain that is there: The pain of the world, of cruel decisions; of betrayal; of injustice.

Jesus entered that pain out of faithfulness to you and to us, to witness to the Truth that is Justice, Wholeness and Love. We confess, we are afraid to enter this pain with Jesus. Strengthen us with Your courage; offer glimpses of hope in the shadows of death; let us know You are present with us here in this moment of pain; now as always.

Time for silent prayer and confession

Unison Assurance of Forgiveness (Galatians 2:20)

All: "I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me." In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. Amen.

Good Friday Meditation

Choir Song: "Ave Verum Corpus" by W.A. Mozart

Lord most holy, born of Mary,
praise and honor be to you O Lord
In your passion you have suffered,
your blood on the cross was poured.
Blessed Savior, Lord of mercy, glory be to Your name adored.
Song of praise and thanks are given forever to you, O Lord.
